

Fair Weather Knitting

This year I was inspired to enter some of my knitting by my friend, Judy, who entered items last year and did well. She did well this year too! A baby hat and cardigan:

And Judy also submitted Socks:

and Handspun in a couple of kinds, and a beautiful Tuscany shawl.

To my surprise, my Hanami shawl won the other special awards:

Revknits

Faith and life seen through the stitches we make.

<http://revknits.com>

and this mystery item also did well:

Revknits

Faith and life seen through the stitches we make.

<http://revknits.com>

Since I'm thinking of submitting this as an original pattern, I must not show a photo!

Many of you know that a family loss has occurred, and I want to thank all the knitters for their support. I will be blogging more about this soon, including about the solace of knitting in times of loss...