

What was I thinking

This morning I'm on the road down in LA (mother's birthday celebration), and I'm realizing that I brought along a very small project, the Leyburn socks, but I am already on the heel of the second one. What if I run out of yarn? Will I need to get an emergency supply? I knew I should have brought another project...

Anybody got suggestions about this? Should I buy insurance yarn?