

FO: Milkweed Shawl

I finished the Milkweed Shawl this week too. A comfort knit, that's for sure! Although I got gauge when I knitted it, I forgot that this was pre-blocking. So I ran out of yarn at the final chart, but fortunately, it still looks fine. Ain't gonna re-knit this baby. And love this colorway from Pagewood Farms - crayon - and the Alyeska yarn is just scrumptious to knit!
