

FO: Twist Cardigan

I love this sweater and wish that I had knit this for me. Sadly, it is my cousin Marie's size and her Christmas and thanks-for-cleaning-out-my-Mom's-House-with-me-for-a-whole-week present. Family can rock!

The cables and yarn look good together:

The buttons with grosgrain ribbon and backing buttons also worked out quite well - this button band will not stretch!

Faith and life seen through the stitches we make.

And there's even enough yarn left over for a hat.
