

FO: Eiffel Tower Shawl

This is a lovely shawl, but it was a long, long knit! Lace-weight yarn on size 1 needles, endless stockinette, then beads and a lace pattern. But I love how it came out, and so does the giftee, my cousin Marie:

I didn't do a hard-block on the shawl because it is already quite large enough, but even without that, the pattern is lovely:

Revknits

Faith and life seen through the stitches we make.

<http://revknits.com>

And I like this photo because it shows off the beads:

Revknits

Faith and life seen through the stitches we make.

<http://revknits.com>

The beading placement was mostly my decisions - I thought the gradual, random placement would be like lighting. The beads are mirror Size 8 beads.

The Eiffel Tower Shawl, by Natalie Servant. My Rav project details.