

I might be a little addicted.

I am loving beads and knitting and necklaces, and I even get to teach about it - one sold-out class at Bluebird Yarn and Fiber on Saturday, and another coming up on Sunday, July 28th at 12 noon. There's a new sample I knit at the store, and I wanted to try out some linen yarn from Shibui.

This will be for my friend Carol, who hosted me on my Montana trip.

A little addicted, but it's legal (for now).
