

Gradient Spinning

I'm enjoying a return to spinning this holiday. First on the plate, plying the lovely Targhee I bought my long-time online friend Suzanne. I've finished two of the four 2oz skeins. I'm really happy with it!

And I pulled out a favorite bump I've had marinating in the fiber stash for a while: Fiber Optics in the Dusty Plum to Olive gradient in merino silk. Yum!

Revknits

Faith and life seen through the stitches we make.

<http://revknits.com>

I've split it into two halves, and will spin a two-ply on my multiple-shaft spindle set:

